ALLIES MAY OPEN DRIVE ON WEST

> By KINGSBURY SMITH International News Service

Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, April 20.-Reports were current in diplomatic quarters in Washington today that May 15 has been set by Adolf Hitler as the approximate date for the launching of Germany's spring offensive. The diplomatic advices reaching Washington indicate that if the German offensive is not actually launched on that day, it will be sometime during the middle of May.

Just where the German armies will strike first still is not definitely known, but it is thought the first move may come in the form of a simultaneous drive in the Near East and Africa. #### VOLUNTARY SAVING WILL WIN

Enforced saving is as distasteful to Americans as a government check-off tax on wages. Secretary Morgenthau still strongly favors voluntary buying of War Bonds and Savings Stamps to help win the war, declaring that the people will do their full part. There is every reason to believe that his confidence is not misplaced.

Investors in War Bonds are helping not only their country but rumors that are ominous have been themselves. They are buying gilt-edged securities and they are purchasing insurance that is more than financial for themselves and their acter to engage in whispers and you first put it in gear?" families. But only regular, systematic buying from current income will gossip about anything or anybody. Salesman: "Ah, that proves it put this patriotic enterprise across.

This was the message the army of volunteer workers has been carrying to a multitude of homes in this area. With every earner enlisted for the purchase of War Bonds, making his weekly or monthly investment as a first charge, self-imposed, on his wages or salary. there will be no more talk about enforced saving. Let's all lend for victory to the limit of our ability, and start doing it now.

HIGH VALUE IN DEFENSE TRAINING

Out of the present emergency will come some home blessings in disguise. But why did we need a war to get mothers to take courses in nutrition, home nursing and first aid? One also wonders why mothers of today had not been properly educated along these lines while in the public schools. But since they were not, it is splendid for them to get this education now.

Whereas the chief appeal to mothers to take these courses, generally given by the Red Cross, is for immediate defense, especially the courses in first aid and home nursing, the facts and skills gained in these courses will be valuable after the war is over. I wish all young mothers would enroll in one these courses. They are free.

Within the past few months thousands of American mothers have been trained to administer first aid to children and other members of the family and to neighbors, reducing suffering and saving lives. So also have a good many thousand saved not only from death but also follow these diseases, because so

OF that, we are assured. But even then-even, if all three of these above-mentioned handicaps are removed—if the submarine situation is controlled, labor slowdowns ended and the material shortage minimized-even then, the enormity of the shipbuilding job cannot be exaggerated. Bombers, fighting planes, tanks, guns, food and men are all essential to the winning fo the war. But, without ships, none of them counts for much. Without ships, they cannot be sent to the far distant places where our fighting has to be done. Without ships, they all just pile up here in futile and costly confusion. Ships are pasic. Ships, Mr. Nelson feels, come first. And he is right.

America needs to get the best sleep it can —for proper rest is the very cornerstone of America's "speed-up" program

In time of war even more than in peace, a man is entitled to the most refreshing night's sleep possible. Restful sleep is not only a basic right. It is almost a duty.

For a man's keenness of mind, his reactions and perceptions, his ability to think clearly, depend largely on the quality of sleep he gets. Yes, even the amount of work he'll do tomorrow can be governed by the kind of rest he gets tonight!

Beautyrests in the homes of workers today are helping to provide the vigor-restoring sleep that sends men off to their jobs clearer of eye, firmer of step, more thoroughly rested . . . than the workers of any other land on earth!

The Beautyrest is no luxury for the American worker. Based on its tenyear guarantee alone, it's cost figures out to only a penny a night! And recent tests indicate that a Beautyrest should certainly outlast even its liberal guarantee. Select yours now at last year's low price!

LANDS FINE FISH

FROM HICKORY CREEK

It is reported that Eugene Scanlon, of Walmo, former ward resident, was fortunate enough to land a fine rainbow trout measuring about 18 inches long and weighing the weather was quite favorable for three and a half pounds, in the that kind of work, being nice and Hickory creek, near the point where the Cleleand Mill road crosses it. It is believed this is the largest fish caught in that vicinity this season. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH John Earl Myers.

April 25th will be the last day we can take orders as customers might want them, namely with cuffs on trousers, pleats in trouser, patch pockets, fancy backs, etc. After April 25th, all garments will be sold in accordance with the War Production Board's restrictions.

Please do not be alarmed as to the Style Change, which is effective after April 25th. All lines of style will be the same and whatever change takes place will not be too noticeable. The Government has only restricted items on men's clothing which is not necessary to style and not essential to the wearing quality. We are sure you will acclimate yourself to the change and work willingly with us and Government restrictions.

Expect Increase In Visitors To State Forests

(Special To The News) HARRISBURG, April 20.-Despite the fact that motorists this mileage to the best advantage, a large number of Pennsylvanians recreational areas instead of making extended tours. Automobile trips in search of rest and relaxation necessarily will be shorter and will be covered at reduced speeds Milford Bratton, director of the bureau of parks, department of forests and waters, states that in this respect Pennsylvanians are fortunate, for within easy travel distance, motorists and vacationists can enjoy the state forest parks, recreational areas and picnic areas. State forest parks are those areas which possess some scenic distinction and supply an opportunity for active recreation. State forest picnic areas have been created and are places where local people may go for a day's outing and get away from the crowds that are found in the larger recreational areas. Tables. benches, shelters, fireplaces and pure drinking water are provided for the convenience of the people.

Experience has proven that so long as outdoor recreation is indulged in freely, we will have a sound, healthy, economic and social condition. Nature has provided natural beauty almost beyond comprehension in the mountains and valleys of our state and people are taking more and more to the great outdoors to breathe the pure air, drink from the cool mountain springs, and enjoy the freedom from their daily tasks.

Benefit Payments Move Upward

HAS FINGER HURT

George Cole, aged 22 years, who gave his address as Erie Trailer Camp, Erie, Pa., was treated at the Jameson Memorial hosptial, Sunday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock, for a laceration of the finger, which he stated was sustained when he struck the firing cap of an empty shell with a screw driver.

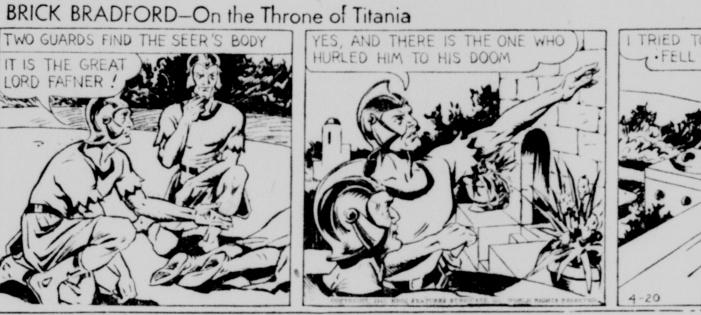

Roosevelt appointed Nelson when threatened with disaster. Thus we can guess when he will fire incompetent helpers.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

A happy week of April 20th to you all . . . this is the day that scrap collecting starts in New Castle . . . have you been looking around for scrap that you might offer for National Defense? . . . Have it ready when the trucks roll around. Junk dealers will pay fifty cents per hundred weight for all the scrap that can be used in our factories. Let's see how many tons New Castle can produce!

Just received a letter from Private J. D. McNicholas (New Castle man who lived at 716 Cumberland avenue) now stationed at Waller Field, Trinidad, B. W. I. . . . Private McNicholas wrote because he had found an article in a magazine that he thought would be of interest to New Castle residents. In an issue of "Afield and Astream", Nick Casillo had written an article about turtle hunting and in the article had mentioned, that champion turtle hunter, Bill Klee . . . pictures of Bill were used with the article . . . he was pictured hunting and carrying a large "snapper" . . . Well the boys down in Trinidad saw the picture and they were mighty proud to say they were from New Castle. They also say that they enjoy eating their meals because the pottery came from "Good Old" Shenango Pottery. So you see the books and magazines that you give to the army are used . . . Don't burn old magazines . . . the boys really enjoy them. And now we say, good luck to the boys in

When all the street ear rails are removed from the streets of New Castle there should be a great many tons of scrap iron for our factories . . . and then maybe the streets will be made smooth so that the wear and tear on tires won't be quite so great. In six months time New Castle will be a much different town than it was six months ago . . . it will be a town that every citizen will be proud to say . . . "That's my home town" . . So keep your ears open and your tongue still . . . New Castle is on the March.

Would you like to have a rabbit dog? It might be a little early in the year to think of hunting, but then you could train this dog all summer and besides this particular dog is reported as being fine around children. A country home is prefered, so if you want this dog, which is a male, just call 5627.

A Victory garden properly planted and tended to will keep you healthy next winter.
